Course Outline 2022-2023

Introduction

August 2022

Dear Students and Parents,

In conjunction with the publication 'Welcome to the MYP' available in the MYP section of the ISB website, this curriculum guide is designed to give both students and parents an overview of the MYP learning programme at ISB. Together these two publications aim to clarify the key areas of the teaching and learning that takes place at each grade level, as well as explain some of the philosophical ideas that underpin the programme and lay the foundation for our educational approach.

Our curriculum is organized according to the framework provided by the International Baccalaureate Middle Years Programme (IBMYP) and heavily influenced by our mission statement and core philosophy of learning through play.

The approach to teaching and learning in the MYP is student-centred and has a strong emphasis on 'learning how to learn'. Students develop a broad range of skills, knowledge, and understanding, which provides a solid basis for further studies at an upper secondary level.

While not covered directly in this guide, learning at ISB also involves a number of projects, Student Composed Schedule weeks and Interdisciplinary Units, which ISB considers powerful tools towards developing strong independent learners who are curious and intrinsically motivated to learn.

Our community and service projects are partly curricular and partly extra-curricular by nature and involve personal as well as class projects. The purpose is to encourage responsible citizenship, deepen the students' knowledge of the world around them and to increase intercultural awareness.

While the details in this publication are correct at the time of publication, the Middle Years Programme is dynamic and constantly evolving, hence details may be subject to change at any time. Students and parents will be informed of bigger changes or initiatives as they occur.

If you have comments or questions about the Middle School curriculum, you are always welcome to contact me on tuex0829@edu.isbillund.com or set up a meeting.

Sincerely,
Tue

English Language Acquisition

The following outline indicates the topics and the approximate dates that they will be studied. Please be aware that these are intended dates only and can be altered at the teacher's discretion. Additional curriculum information and submission dates will be available on ManageBac.

Aims and Objectives

In English Language Acquisition, there will be two foci; English language skills and the development of skills and knowledge of literature.

Students who will benefit significantly from developing their English language skills (Speaking, Listening, Reading and Writing) will be given an opportunity to do so in the English Language Acquisition class.

They will be studying the same breadth of literature although they may not reach the same level of detail in regard to context or literary techniques.

This parallel course structure will continue to enhance students' literature skills levels and allow them to transfer onto the Language and Literature course when they are ready - at the latest after the first term in M3. This will help them prepare for the MYP exams in M5, as per IB requirements.

The Language Acquisition classes will be assessed according to 'Proficient' criteria of the Language Acquisition course which is the level just below native fluency.

The outline for the units taught this year in M3

Topic/Unit Name	Main Content
1. Visual Art -	Movement and Change – Students will look at the concept of Movement, and form and balance in Japanese woodblock prints. They will look at, choose an artwork and analyse it to develop their understanding of Movement in Japanese woodblock prints. They will then work on making their own prints. The students will go through a process of creating their drawing, tracing it, transferring it onto linoleum and cutting it to make either a simple single colour print or a more complex print with 2 or more layers. The process of making linocuts requires a different way of thinking through the creative process. This unit is created to give the students an understanding of Visual Art practices and concepts from a different time and space but also a very different technique of creating art.
2. Music -	The Blues - The Blues provides an artistic framework and style for sharing personal narratives and musical expressions about life's struggles, and as a genre it has deeply influenced music and musicians around the world. We will study key elements of music such as harmony, melody, form, and texture through careful listening to and analysis of musical examples, and we will further our understanding of these elements through the playing of stringed instruments, percussion, keyboards, and singing in small and large group contexts. Finally, the students will compose, rehearse, and perform original compositions that incorporate concepts from this unit in small to medium-sized groups.
3. Media	Quiet on set: Editing and making movies - in this course we will look at a range of filming and editing techniques when working with Adobe Premiere. They will analyse videos to develop their understanding of filmmaking techniques. The students will create a video between 3 to 5 minutes expressing their understanding, ideas and views of the world around them using learned media techniques.
