About ISB

ISB is a private international school located in Billund. We are an IB World School authorised in the PYP and MYP Programmes. Read more at www.ibo.org or on our website: www.isbillund.com. The language of instruction at ISB is English. We are 440 students and 120 members of staff representing more than 50 nationalities. We work to cultivate a community of lifelong learners who will create a better world with courage, compassion and curiosity.

To maintain curiosity and motivation for learning and reflection over what is achieved, we continuously ask ourselves how we can introduce choice, wonder and delight into all our learning activities to reinforce the desire for further development and education.
